In the Postseason

Last season, for the 31th straight year, the Big Sky Conference was represented in the NCAA I Football Championship. Twenty-six times the league has had at least two teams participate, including the last 13 years in a row. In 2009, three Big Sky teams qualified for the playoffs. Weber State and Eastern Washington both earned at-large bids, while Montana gained the league's automatic bid by winning the conference title. Montana has qualified for the playoffs a record 17 straight seasons and has won or shared 12 straight Big Sky championships. Montana opened the 2009 playoffs with a miraculous 61-48 victory over South Dakota State. The Grizzlies scored 40 points in the final 20 minutes to rally from a 48-21 deficit. The Grizzlies rolled to a 51-0 quarterfinal victory over Stephen F. Austin, a team that ended Eastern Washington's season in the first round. Montana won a thrilling 24-17 semifinal game over Appalachian State in a nationally-televised ESPN game to advance to the championship game for the second straight season. Montana's quest fell just short, falling to Villanova 23-21 in Chattanooga, Tenn. The Big Sky has claimed the NCAA Division I title five times, most recently by Montana in 2001.
