Big Sky Conference History

The Big Sky Conference celebrates 50 years of men's athletics and 25 years of women's competition during the 2013-14 academic year.

The venerable and stable Division I Big Sky Conference observed its 50th birthday on July 1, 2013. To mark the historic occasion, the league will honor its past by commemorating its top male and female athletics, as well as the top moments and teams.

Four of the current league members – Idaho State University, The University of Montana, Montana State and Weber State – have been with the league since its birth. Fellow charter member the University of Idaho will bring the majority of its sports back to the Big Sky on July 1, 2014. Northern Arizona University enters its 45th season in the league, giving the league five members with at least 40 years of continuous membership.

The Big Sky Conference welcomed North Dakota and Southern Utah on July 1, 2012 as full members. UC Davis and Cal Poly joined as football affiliate members. Eastern Washington University, the University of Northern Colorado, Portland State University and Sacramento State round out the current membership.

The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the Football Championship Subdivision. Six times, Big Sky teams have won the Division I National Championship, including Eastern Washington in 2010. A Big Sky team has played for the national championship in three of the past five seasons. The Big Sky is one of three conferences in the western United States playing Division I football.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members – Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back at eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

The Big Sky now includes nine states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Red River Valley of North Dakota. The league is represented along the entire west coast with institutions in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Colorado. It is "The Heart of the American West."

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by the late A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled "The Big Sky." Jack Hollowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a "Welcome to Big Sky Country" sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought "Big Sky" would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 15 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis. In addition, there are also championships in football, and women's volleyball, golf and soccer. The Big Sky sponsored softball for the first time in 2013. Men's golf will return as a conference sport in 2014-15.

In 1988-89, the Big Sky Conference first began sponsoring women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Doug Fullerton, the fifth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, is in his 19th year at the helm. Fullerton took over the Big Sky on July 1, 1995, replacing longtime commissioner Ron Stephenson, who passed away in 2011. Stephenson served the league for 14 years. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81, while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

Big Sky Football History

The Big Sky Conference has a rich history in football dating back 50 years. Since the Big Sky began playing Football Championship Subdivision football in 1978, the league has won six national titles - Boise State (1980), Idaho State (1981), Montana State (1984), Montana (1995 & 2001) and Eastern Washington (2010). Big Sky teams have made 13 total appearances.

In 138 total FCS playoff games, the Big Sky has a record of 75-63, with seven wins and seven losses coming against fellow league teams.

Entering the 2013 season, the Big Sky has had at least two teams in the FCS playoffs in 27 of the past 29 years. The Big Sky has had three teams in the playoffs on six occasions - 1988, 1990, 1994, 2003, 2009 and 2012. Since 1993, 14 Big Sky teams have made it to at least the semifinals of the playoffs.

The Big Sky has advanced two teams to the quarterfinals four of the last seven years, and five of the last nine.

Big Sky teams played in three straight national championship games, with Montana advancing in 2008 and 2009, followed by Eastern Washington in 2010.

Montana has appeared in seven national championship games since 1995. Since 2000, six of the nine Big Sky teams have made at least one playoff appearance.

NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

In 1987 the Walter Payton Award was established by The Sports Network to honor the most outstanding football player at the FCS level. The award is chosen annually by a nationwide panel of media and college sports information directors. Since its inception, seven Big Sky players have won the award, including EWU QB Bo Levi Mitchell in 2011. The seven individual winners is more than any other FCS conference.

The Sports Network also awards the Buck Buchanan Award, given each season to the top defensive player in FCS. In 2003 Idaho State defensive end Jared Allen became the first Big Sky player to win the Buchanan Award, which was established in 1995. Allen led the nation in sacks and forced fumbles and was third in tackles for a loss. His 17.5 sacks set an ISU school record and he also scored a pair of touchdowns during the year.

Montana's Kroy Biermann became the second winner in 2007. Biermann tallied 15 sacks, second-most in the nation, had 18 tackles for loss, five forced fumbles and 72 total tackles.

Eastern Washington's Greg Peach made it two straight Buchanan winners for the Big Sky in 2008. Peach led the nation with 18 tackles and 22 tackles for loss.

Eastern Washington's J.C. Sherritt captured the honor in 2010. Sherritt, who a night later led his team to the national championship, recorded 176 tackles with 14 for loss.

Montana State's Caleb Schreibeis made it five Buchanans in 10 years in 2012.

At the end of each season The Sports Network also awards the Eddie Robinson Award to the nation's top FCS head coach. The Robinson Award was established in 1987 and two Big Sky head coaches have won the award - Montana head coach Joe Glenn in 2000 and Nevada head coach Chris Ault in 1991.

Montana State coach Rob Ash was named the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year following the 2011 season.

Montana State's Caleb Schreibeis won the 2012 Buck Buchanan Award.

Eastern Washington's Bo Levi Mitchell won the 2010 Walter Payton Award.

Eastern Washington's Erik Meyer won the 2005 Walter Payton Award.

Division I National Championship

Division I National Championship

Even before Sam Houston State and North Dakota State met in a rematch in the NCAA Division I Championship Game last January in Frisco, the NCAA had awarded the city with a three-year extension to keep the FCS title game at FC Dallas Stadium through the 2015 season.

Frisco has served as host for the championship game since the 2010 season and has seen sellouts in the last two championship games between the Bearkats and Bison. Last year's game, won 39-13 by North Dakota State, was a virtual sellout in October with only tickets allotted for the competing teams remaining until after the national semifinals. Each team sold those ticket allotments and a public offering for standing-room-only tickets closed in a matter of minutes. The sellout was the first for the FCS title game since 2007.

"The entire local community, including the Southland Conference, has really embraced and supported this event," Charlie Cobb, chair of the Division I Football Committee, said when the extension was announced last December. "When you combine that enthusiasm with the quality of the stadium, it makes Frisco an outstanding environment for the participating student-athletes, coaches and fans."

A crowd of 21,411 got inside FC Dallas Stadium to watch North Dakota State repeat. That was more than the 20,586 fans who watched the Bison beat Sam Houston State 17-6 in 2011 for their first Division I national championship.

The Bison and Bearkats were tied 10-10 at the half, but Bison quarterback Brock Jenson, who was voted the game's most outstanding player, scored twice in the second half while completing 9 of 16 passes for 115 passing yards to go with 44 rushing yards and three scores in last year's game. The Bison racked up 441 total yards and intercepted four passes, which was the difference in the game. North Dakota State gave up 391 yards to Sam Houston.

North Dakota State became the fourth FCS team to win title in consecutive seasons. Georgia State has won back-to-back titles twice. Youngstown State repeated and Appalachian State won titles in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

While the game has no doubt been the highlight for the team, it is a week's worth of events that has separated the event in Frisco from past championships – not to mention the great Texas hospitality.

The teams arrive in Texas three days before the game starts. They're greeted by signs and banners around town as well as great crowds at their respective team headquarters. The next day, teams either visit local elementary schools where they are welcomed by students eager to show off their school spirit for their newly adopted college teams or they visit a local Children's Hospital. Later that night, the two participating teams gather for the Great Texas Barbecue Bowl which showcases the legendary Texas culture and hospitality. On Friday, teams attend the Champions Luncheon and make last-minute tweaks in game preparation.

The day of the game, fans begin gathering at restaurants and parking lots surrounding FC Dallas Stadium and take part in Tailgate Town that features quality entertainment and even more Texas sounds, flavors and hospitality.

Frisco is thrilled with the contract extension, which will keep it as the focus for all FCS teams and fans each season.

"We are ecstatic the NCAA has extended its contract with Frisco to host the Division I Football Championship another three years," said Maher Maso, the Frisco mayor said when the extension was announced. "This game has a projected economic impact of more than $5.9 million on our regional economy. Not only that, the exposure Frisco receives from the game being televised to a national audience is invaluable. Frisco enjoys being the best host we can be to the players and their families, students and football fans in general. It's a great event honoring true champions."
Team Frisco consists of the City of Frisco, its Economic Development Corporation and Convention & Visitors Bureau, Hunt Sports Group/FC Dallas Stadium, the Frisco Chamber of Commerce and Frisco-based Southland Conference.

DIRECTV Sports Networks and the Big Sky Conference announced the telecast schedule for the upcoming 2013 football season with a total of 10 games to be televised on the ROOT SPORTS branded regional sports networks.

The three ROOT SPORTS networks reach more than 8.7 million viewers across 18 states, including Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Utah and Colorado that are home to most Big Sky institutions.

DIRECTV Sports Networks will produce and televise all 10 Big Sky Conference football games in high-definition, starting on September 26 when Cal Poly takes on Portland State on a Thursday night from JELD-WEN Field. Two days later, Northern Arizona battles Montana in Flagstaff.

"We were extremely pleased with our inaugural season in 2012, not only in terms of the quality of the games, but also in our working relationships with the conference and its member schools," said Patrick Crumb, President of DIRECTV Sports Networks. "We are looking forward to building on that success this year and continuing to increase the awareness of the great college football being played in the Big Sky Conference."

"Our television partnership with ROOT SPORTS has helped develop the Big Sky Conference brand," said Big Sky Conference Commissioner Doug Fullerton. "Our conference was thrilled with the first-class production of the games last season, and look forward to an excellent schedule this upcoming season. We believe the employees of ROOT SPORTS and DIRECTV Sports Networks are devoted to making the Big Sky broadcasts not just a game, but an event."

Schreibeis Wins Buchanan

Caleb Schreibeis began his career at Montana State as a walk-on. He finished it by capturing the Buck Buchanan Award. Schreibeis, the senior defensive end from Billings, Mont., accepted the Buck Buchanan Award in December from The Sports Network. "It hasn't really sunk in yet, the magnitude of it, but it's a great honor," Schreibeis said. "I'll always remember the friendships I made here, laughing and joking with (defensive line) Coach (Bo) Beck and the guys in the meeting room, lining up and working hard for the same goal next to these guys. I don't think that is repeatable anywhere else in life. Coach Beck has made playing on the D-line and playing in this program fun, and Coach Ash has been great. I'm proud that I played for Montana State." Schreibeis became the first Montana State player to win one of The Sports Network National Player of the Year Awards. He is the fifth player Big Sky player and the fourth in the last six years to capture the Buchanan, which has been awarded to the top defensive player in the FCS since 1995. Schreibeis, a 6-foot-3, 252-pounder from Billings West High School, led the nation in forced fumbles with eight. He finished the season leading the Big Sky in sacks with 12.5 and tackles for loss with 15. He tallied 59 total tackles with seven quarterback hurries and four passes broken up. Schreibeis earned 35 first-place votes, 18 second-place votes, 14 third-place votes, nine fourth-place votes and 12 fifth-place votes for a total of 319 total points. Jeremy Kimbrough of Appalachian State was second with 287 points.

Walsh, Baldwin Share Coach of the Year

For the first time since 2005, the Big Sky Conference had co-football Coaches of the Year. Eastern Washington's Beau Baldwin and Cal Poly's Tim Walsh shared the honor. The selection was made by the league coaches. It's the first Big Sky Coach of the Year honor for both coaches. Baldwin guided the Eagles to an 11-3 season and a share of the conference title with a 7-1 record. EWU's regular season included a win over FBS Idaho, and a road win at Montana State. Eastern Washington, which won the 2010 National Championship under Baldwin, advanced to the national semifinals. Baldwin is the fourth EWU coach to win the Big Sky Coach of the Year. Dick Zornes claimed the honor in 1992, followed by Mike Kramer in 1997. Paul Wulff was the Coach of the Year in 2001, 2004 and 2005. Walsh guided Cal Poly to a 7-1 conference record and a 9-3 mark in the Mustangs first season in the Big Sky Conference. Cal Poly earned an at-large bid to the playoffs. The Mustangs lost 18-16 to Sam Houston State in a second-round game. Walsh spent 14 seasons as a head coach at Portland State, including 11 in the Big Sky Conference. Cal Poly started the season with seven consecutive victories, including a 24-22 road win over Wyoming of the Mountain West Conference. Both Walsh and Baldwin were finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award, presented annually by The Sports Network to the top coach in the FCS.

2012 Season Review

KAUFMAN SETS FCS RECORD: Brandon Kaufman completed his collegiate career in style, catching nine passes for a career-high 215 yards and three touchdowns in EWU's 45-42 semifinal loss to Sam Houston State. Kaufman scored all three of his touchdowns in the second-half rally. Kaufman set the FCS single-season record for receiving yards in a season during the game. The previous mark was 1,712 by Delaware's Eddie Conti in 1998. The previous Big Sky single-season record was 1,525 yards by Weber State's Tim Toone in 2008. In three playoff games this season, Kaufman caught 27 passes for 580 yards and six touchdowns. In eight career playoff games, Kaufman caught 54 passes for 942 yards and 10 touchdowns. Kaufman had 11 100-yard receiving games this season and 19 in his career.

TWO EARN ACADEMIC HONORS: Montana State wide receiver Tanner Bleskin and Eastern Washington safety Jeff Minnerly have been selected to the Capital One Academic All-America Division I Football Team. Bleskin, a junior from Great Falls, Mont., maintains a 3.90 grade point average in Microbiology. The Second Team All-Conference section from C.M. Russell High School leads the Bobcats with 66 catches for 928 yards and four touchdowns. Minnerly, a senior from Spokane, Wash., maintains a 3.78 GPA in Finance & Electrical Engineering. Minnerly has appeared in seven games with 27 tackles and an interception. In 2010, Minnerly was awarded the Prestigious "Elite 88" academic honor at the Division I National Championship Football game.

STANDING-ROOM ONLY: Montana and Montana State both finished the regular season ranked in the top 10 in total and average attendance in the FCS. Montana had 151,417 fans in six home games for an average of 25,236. Those marks were second only to Appalachian State, which had 167,787 fans in six home games for an average of 27,964. Montana State was eighth in total attendance (109,342) and eighth in average attendance (18,224). In attendance by capacity, Montana State was fifth, filling Bobcat Stadium to 119.92 percent of its listed capacity. Montana was 14th at 100.08 percent, and Eastern Washington was 17th at 98.94 percent. Montana drew a Washington-Grizzly Stadium record crowd of 26,210 to Saturday's game against rival Montana State.

MUSTANGS RUSH TO RECORD: Cal Poly set a Big Sky single-season record for rushing yards in a season. Cal Poly finished with 3,890 rushing yards, eclipsing the previous record of 3,477 set by Montana in 1971. The Mustangs also set a single-season record for rush attempts with 753. Montana previously held the single-season record with 728 attempts in 1970. Cal Poly finished the season with 36 rushing touchdowns, three shy of Montana State's record of 39 set in 1966.

FOUR SKY TEAMS RANKED: For the first time since 1994, two Big Sky Conference teams finished the season ranked in the top five of the Football Championship Subdivision. Eastern Washington finished the season fourth in The Sports Network Poll and the Coaches' Poll. Montana State was fifth in both polls. Cal Poly finished 11th in the Coaches' Poll and 12th in The Sports Network Poll. Northern Arizona was 20th in both. This marked the first time since 2003 that four Big Sky teams finished the season ranked. Montana State finished with its best ranking since 1984 when the Bobcats won the national championship. Only the CAA finished with more ranked teams with six. Old Dominion was the only CAA team ranked in the top 10, checking in at 6.

RUMBLE SIXTH IN CATCHES: Idaho State's Rodrick Rumble finished his career with 223 catches, ranking sixth on the Big Sky's all-time list for career catches. Rumble became ISU's all-time leader in catches in a 40-14 loss to Weber State in the final week of the regular season. Rumble caught a single-season Big Sky record 112 passes as a junior in 2011. Rumble finished with 2,863 career receiving yards, an ISU record. He caught 18 TD passes. Rumble finished the season with 74 catches for 1,006 yards despite playing in just nine games.

ASH REGION 5 COY: Montana State Rob Ash was named the Region 5 Co-Coach of the Year for the Football Championship Subdivision by the American Football Coaches Association on Monday, Dec. 3. Ash shared the honor with Sam Houston State coach Willie Fritz. Ash guided Montana State to a 10-1 regular season, the first 10-win regular season in school history. He was named the 2010 Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year, and the 2011 Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year.

NO HOMEFIELD ADVANTAGE: Four of the six road teams won on the final weekend of conference play, a fitting end the 2012 season. Road teams wound up winning 28 of the 52 conference games. Cal Poly and Eastern Washington were the only two teams go finish 4-0 at home. Idaho State was the only team not to win a road conference agme. Montana State and Northern Arizona both went 4-0 in road conference games. Cal Poly, Eastern Washington and Southern Utah all went 3-1 in conference road games. Montana went 1-3 in conference home games, marking the first time the Grizzlies have been under .500 in conference home games since the opening of Washington-Grizzly Stadium in 1986.

Team Notes

✓ Northern Colorado will open the 2013 season by playing four of its first five games at home at Nottingham Field. The Bears will play seven games in Greeley this season. The seven home games are the most in school history.

✓ Northern Colorado closed the 2012 season by winning its final three games and four of its last five. The Bears finished 4-4 in league play, the program's best record since joining the Big Sky in 2006. The only loss in the final five weeks of the season was a 12-10 setback to Northern Arizona.

✓ Of the 12 teams on the schedule, only Langston is a first-time opponent, however three other teams (Colorado State-Pueblo, Wyoming and Northern Iowa) haven't faced Northern Colorado in the lifetime of any current student-athlete. The Bears face Colorado State-Pueblo for the first time since 1976, Wyoming for the first time since 1949 and Northern Iowa for the first time since 1926.

✓ The Bears intercepted 13 passes last season, which tied for the second-most in the Big Sky. The interceptions helped Northern Colorado finish with a turnover margin of +3.

✓ The Bears are slated to return six offensive and six defensive starters from the 2012 team.

2013 Rule Changes

These changes were approved by the Rules Committee on February 13, 2013.
The new rules as approved by the Playing Rules Oversight Panel (PROP) are given below.

1. Targeting with Crown of Helmet (Rule 9-1-3)/Targeting to Head/ NeckArea of a Defenseless player (Rule 9-1-4).
No change to the statements of the fouls Changes to the penalty statements in bold.
PENALTY 15 yards.
For dead ball fouls, 15 yards from the succeeding spot. Automatic first down for fouls by Team B if not in conflict with other rules
For fouls in the first half: Disqualification for the remainder of the game. For fouls in the second half: Disqualification for the remainder of the game and the first half of the next game. If the foul occurs in the second half of the last game of the season, players with remaining eligibility shall serve the suspension during the first game of the following season

The disqualification is subject to review by Instant Replay. For games in which Instant Replay is not used: If a player is disqualified in the second half the conference may appeal the suspension for the first half of the next game to the national coordinator of football officials who would then facilitate a video review

2. Blocking Below The Waist (Rule 9-1-6)
Changes in bold
1. Team A
prior to a change of possession Consider a zone seven yards on each side of the ball extending five yards beyond the neutral zone and back to Team A's end line.
(a) Team A players who are on the line of scrimmage completely within this zone and backs who are stationary completely within the tackle box at the snap may legally block below the waist inside this zone until the ball has left the zone.
(b) Players not covered in a (above) while the ball is still in the zone, and all players after the ball has left the zone, are allowed to block below the waist if the force of the initial contact is from the front, but they may not block below the waist if the force of the initial contact is from the side or back. "From the front" is understood to mean within the clock face region between "10 o'clock and 2 o'clock" forward of the player being blocked.
(c) Once the ball has left the zone a player may not block below the waist toward his own end line.
2. Team B prior to a change of possession (a)
Other than in paragraphs b and c below,
Team B players may block below the waist only within the area defined by lines parallel to the goal line five yards beyond and behind th e neutral zone extended to the sidelines.
Blocking below the waist by players of Team B outside this area is illegal.
(b) Team B players may not block below the waist against an opponent who is in position to receive a backward pass.
(c) Team B players
may not block below the waist against an eligible Team A pass receiver beyond the neutral zone unless attempting to get to the ball or ball carrier.
This prohibition ends when a legal forward pass is no longer possible by rule.
3. Kicks
During a down in which there is a free kick or a scrimmage kick, blocking below the waist by any player is illegal except against the ball carrier.
4. Change of possessionAfter any change of possession, blocking below the waist by any player is illegal except against the ball carrier.

3. 10 second Runoff for Injury Timeout Late in the Half (Rule 3-3-5-f)
Add new paragraph
If the player injury is the only reason for stopping the clock with less than one minute in the half, the opponent has the option of a 10 second runoff. The play clock will be set to 25 seconds. If there is a 10 second runoff the game clock will start on the referee's signal. If there is no 10 second runoff the game clock will start on the snap. The 10 second runoff may be avoided by a charged team timeout if available. There is no option of a 10 second runoff if there are injuries to opposing players.

4.Minimum Time for a Play After Spiking the Ball (Rule 3-2)
New Article 5 (Minimum Time)
Article 5
If the game clock is stopped with three or more seconds remaining in the quarter and will start on the referee's signal, the offense may reasonably expect to throw the ball directly to the ground (Rule 7-3-2-e) and have enough time for another play. With two seconds or one second on the game clock there is enough time for only one play.

5. Assisting The Ball Carrier (Rule 9-3-2-b)
New language deletes the words " push "and or charge into."
b. The ball carrier shall not grasp a teammate; and no other player of his team shall grasp, pull, push or lift or charge into him to assist him in forward progress.

6. Expand Definition of Unsportsmanlike Conduct (Rule 9-2-1)
Add a new paragraph, 9-2-1-a-1-(j) (j) Dead - ball contact fouls such as pushing, shoving, striking, etc. that are not part of the game action.

7. Uniform Numbers (Rule 1-4-2)
Paragraph 1-4-2-d is changed to read:
d. When a player enters the game after changing his jersey number, he must report to the referee, who then informs the opposing head coach and announces the change. Such a player who enters the game without reporting commits a foul for unsportsmanlike conduct.
New paragraph 1-4-2-e:
e. Two players playing the same position may not wear the same number during the game.

8.Jersey Numerals (Rule 1-4-4-c-3)
Change in bold:
3. Numerals. The jersey must have clearly visible, permanent Arabic numerals measuring at least 8 and 10 inches in height front and back, respectively, of one solid color which itself is clearly in distinct contrast with the color of the jersey, irrespective of any border around the number.
(Remaining language remains unchanged.)

Note: This rule takes effect in 2013 for FBS institutions and in 2014 for FCS, Division II and Division III institutions.)

9. Helmet Off: Timeout
Allows Player to Remain in the Game (Rule 3-3-9-a) Add sentence to paragraph a
a. If a player's helmet comes completely off through play, other than as the direct result of a foul by an opponent, the player must leave the game for the next down. The game clock will stop at the end of the down. The player may remain in the game if his team is granted a charged timeout.

10 Pylon Markings (Rule 1-2-6) Add to Article 6, Pylons:
One manufacturer's logo or trademark is permitted on each pylon. Institutional and conference logos are allowed. Any such marking may not extend more than 3 inches on any side.

11. Allow Wireless Communication for Officiating Crew (Rule 1-4-13)
Add exception to Rule 1-4-13:
Exception: A protected wireless communication system open only to the officiating crew and conference officiating observer is allowed.
V. INSTANT REPLAY

12. Clock Adjustment at the End of a Quarter (Rule 12-3-5-c)
Change in bold:
c. Clock adjustment at the end of either half any quarter.
If at the end of any quarter a half, either during a down.
(Remaining language remains unchanged.)
