BIG SKY CONFERENCE HISTORY

The Big Sky Conference enters its 51st year and 26th year of women's competition during the 2014-15 academic year.

The venerable and stable Division I Big Sky Conference observed its 50th birthday on July 1, 2013.

Four of the current league members – Idaho State University, The University of Montana, Montana State and Weber State – have been with the league since its birth. Fellow charter member the University of Idaho returned most of its sports to the Big Sky on July 1, 2014. Northern Arizona University enters its 46th season in the league, giving the league five members with at least 40 years of continuous membership.

The Big Sky Conference welcomed North Dakota and Southern Utah on July 1, 2012 as full members. UC Davis and Cal Poly joined as football affiliate members. Eastern Washington University, the University of Northern Colorado, Portland State University and Sacramento State round out the current membership.

The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the Football Championship Subdivision. Six times, Big Sky teams have won the Division I National Championship, including Eastern Washington in 2010. A Big Sky team has played for the national championship in three of the past six seasons. The Big Sky is one of three conferences in the western United States playing Division I football.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members – Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back at eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

The Big Sky's full members represent nine states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Red River Valley of North Dakota. The league is represented along the entire west coast with institutions in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Colorado. It is "The Heart of the American West."

The University of Idaho, which was a member from 1963-96, will once again compete in the Big Sky in the majority of its sports. Idaho's football program will maintain its FBS affiliation, joining the Sun Belt Conference.

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by the late A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled "The Big Sky." Jack Hollowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a "Welcome to Big Sky Country" sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought "Big Sky" would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 16 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis. In addition, there are also championships in football, and women's volleyball, golf and soccer. The Big Sky sponsored softball for the first time in 2013. Men's golf returns as a championship sport in 2014 for the first time since 2002. The University of Hartford and Binghamton University have joined the Big Sky as affiliate members in golf.

In 1988-89, the Big Sky Conference first began sponsoring women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Doug Fullerton, the fifth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, is in his 20th year at the helm. Fullerton took over the Big Sky on July 1, 1995, replacing longtime commissioner Ron Stephenson, who passed away in 2011. Stephenson served the league for 14 years. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81, while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

BIG SKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

Montana State's Caleb Schreibeis won the 2012 Buck Buchanan Award.

Eastern Washington's Bo Levi Mitchell won the 2010 Walter Payton Award.

Eastern Washington's Erik Meyer won the 2005 Walter Payton Award.

The Big Sky Conference has a rich history in football dating back 51 years. Since the Big Sky began playing Football Championship Subdivision football in 1978, the league has won six national titles - Boise State (1980), Idaho State (1981), Montana State (1984), Montana (1995 & 2001) and Eastern Washington (2010). Big Sky teams have made 13 total appearances.

In 144 total FCS playoff games, the Big Sky has a record of 77-67 with seven wins and seven losses coming against fellow league teams.

Entering the 2014 season,the Big Sky has had at least two teams in the FCS playoffs in 28 of the past 30 years. The Big Sky has had three teams in the playoffs on six occasions - 1988, 1990, 1994, 2003, 2009 and 2012. In 2013, the Big Sky sent four teams to the playoffs for the first tme. Since 1993, 15 Big Sky teams have made it to at least the semifinals of the playoffs.

The Big Sky has advanced two teams to the quarterfinals four of the last eight years, and five of the last 10.

Big Sky teams played in three straight national championship games, with Montana advancing in 2008 and 2009, followed by Eastern Washington in 2010.

Montana has appeared in seven national championship games since 1995. Since 2000, eight of the 13 Big Sky teams have made at least one playoff appearance.

NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

In 1987 the Walter Payton Award was established by The Sports Network to honor the most outstanding football player at the FCS level. The award is chosen annually by a nationwide panel of media and college sports information directors. Since its inception, seven Big Sky players have won the award, including EWU QB Bo Levi Mitchell in 2011. The seven individual winners is more than any other FCS conference.

The Sports Network also awards the Buck Buchanan Award, given each season to the top defensive player in FCS. In 2003 Idaho State defensive end Jared Allen became the first Big Sky player to win the Buchanan Award, which was established in 1995. Allen led the nation in sacks and forced fumbles and was third in tackles for a loss. His 17.5 sacks set an ISU school record and he also scored a pair of touchdowns during the year.

Montana's Kroy Biermann became the second winner in 2007. Biermann tallied 15 sacks, second-most in the nation, had 18 tackles for loss, five forced fumbles and 72 total tackles.

Eastern Washington's Greg Peach made it two straight Buchanan winners for the Big Sky in 2008. Peach led the nation with 18 tackles and 22 tackles for loss.

Eastern Washington's J.C. Sherritt captured the honor in 2010. Sherritt, who a night later led his team to the national championship, recorded 176 tackles with 14 for loss.

Montana State's Caleb Schreibeis made it five Buchanans in 10 years in 2012. Teammate Brad Daly gave Montana State back-to-back Buchanan winners in 2013.

In 2013, Eastern Washington's Cooper Kupp became the first Big Sky player to win the Jerry Rice Award as the nation's top freshman. The Sports Network began awarding the Jerry Rice Award in 2011. Kupp set national freshman records for catches, yards and touchdowns.

At the end of each season The Sports Network also awards the Eddie Robinson Award to the nation's top FCS head coach. The Robinson Award was established in 1987 and two Big Sky head coaches have won the award - Montana head coach Joe Glenn in 2000 and Nevada head coach Chris Ault in 1991.

IN THE PROS

Big Sky Conference football players once again made a big impact in the professional ranks in 2013.

The Super Bowl featured former Big Sky players on each side. Former Portland State defensive back DeShawn Shead and former Weber State offensive lineman Paul McQuistan played for the Seattle Seahawks, while former Portland State basketball and football player Julius Thomas enjoyed a breakout season for the Denver Broncos. Thomas earned his first Pro Bowl nod, but was unable to play because of his Super Bowl commitments.

Portland State had more active players on Super Bowl rosters this past season than Auburn, Alabama, Oklahoma, Ohio State and South Carolina combined.

Two Big Sky Players were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Montana linebacker Jordan Tripp was taken in the fifth round by the Miami Dolphins. Portland State offensive lineman MItchell Van Dyk went in the seventh round to the St. Louis Rams.

More than 40 players will be on NFL rosters when camp opens this summer.

Former Big Sky Conference players such as Travis Lulay, JC Sherritt, Ricky Ray, Greg Peach, Matt Nichols and Bo Levi Mitchell continue to shine in the Canadian Football League.

Several former Big Sky players are also currently playing in the Arena Football League. Former Eastern Washington quarterback Erik Meyer was the AFL's Offensive Player of the Year in 2013.

Former Portland State basketball and football player Julius Thomas caught 12 TD passes for the Denver Broncos in 2013.

Former Portland State Viking defensive back DeShawn Shead won a Super Bowl ring with Seattle.

ROOT SPORTS TO SHOW 11 GAMES IN 2014

Network's Coverage of Big Sky Honored With Emmy Award

DIRECTV SPORTS Networks and the Big Sky Conference announced its telecast schedule for the upcoming 2014 season with a total of 11 games to be televised on ROOT SPORTS™. This will mark the third year of a multi-year partnership between DIRECTV Sports Networks and the Big Sky Conference.

All 11 Big Sky Conference football games will be produced and televised in high-definition, with many of the games available in both the Northwest and Rocky Mountain Regions.

"We have been extremely pleased with our partnership with the Big Sky Conference and its member schools, and look forward to what is shaping up to be an exciting 2014 season," said Patrick Crumb, President of DIRECTV Sports Networks. "The addition of the BSC football to our network over the past two years has significantly enhanced our collegiate programming."

ROOT SPORTS' production of Big Sky Conference football in 2013 captured a Northwest Region Emmy Award. The production was nominated in 2012.

ROOT SPORTS is the official television partner of the Big Sky Conference.

This year's schedule opens with a special non-conference matchup between league rivals the Eastern Washington Eagles and Montana State Bobcats on Sept. 20 in Bozeman, Mont. Eastern Washington is the two-time defending Big Sky Champion. The Eagles have advanced to the national semifinals each of the past two seasons.

Big Sky Conference action continues each week with a single game, until the final weekend of the season. Rivals Eastern Washington and Portland State will battle in the "Dam Cup" from Providence Park in Portland, Ore., in a special Friday night game on Nov. 21. Treasure State rivals Montana State and Montana square off in the 114th "Brawl of the Wild" on Saturday, Nov. 22 in Missoula to cap the 11-game slate.

"Through the first two seasons of our partnership with DIRECTV Sports Networks, we've heard extremely positive feedback from our fans and alumni in regards to the first-class production, and overall excitement surrounding our ROOT SPORTS games," said Big Sky Conference Commissioner Doug Fullerton. "We're excited for this year's schedule of games on ROOT SPORTS."

Around the Big Sky

Montana State's Daly Wins Buchanan

Montana State's Brad Daly was named the winner of the 2013 Buck Buchanan Award by The Sports Network. Daly, a senior from Helena, Mont., became the second straight Montana State Bobcat to win the Buck Buchanan Award, given annually since 1995 to the nation's top defensive player. aly, a 6-foot-1, 240-pounder, was named the Co-Defensive Big Sky MVP after leading the nation in sacks with 14 and tying for the national lead with 20.5 tackles for loss. Daly follows former teammate Caleb Schreibeis as a Buchanan winner. Schreibeis, also a defensive end, captured the award in 2012. Daly earned 64 first-place votes from the panel of 147 sports information directors, writers, broadcasters and other dignitaries from across the nation. He received 485 total points. James Madison's Stephon Robertson was second with 43 first-place votes and 421 total points. Daly tallied 68 total tackles. He also had an interception, two forced fumbles, two blocked kicks, a fumble recovery and seven quarterback hurries.

EWU's Kupp Captures Jerry Rice Award

Eastern Washington wide receiver Cooper Kupp claimed the Jerry Rice Award, presented annually by The Sports Network to the nation's top FCS freshman. Kupp, a 6-foot-2, 195-pounder from Yakima, Wash., became the first Big Sky Conference player to win the Rice, which has been awarded since 2011. Kupp has enjoyed a record-setting freshman campaign for the Eagles, setting FCS freshman records for catches, yards and touchdowns. He was a unanimous All-Big Sky selection, becoming the first freshman wide receiver in league history to earn First Team honors. He also won the league's first ever Freshman of the Year honor. The phenom won the award by the largest margin in its history. He earned 80 first-place votes and 557 total points. Appalachian State running back Marcus Cox was second with 259 points. A total of 147 sports information directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries from across the nation voted. Kupp burst onto the scene in his first game, a 49-46 upset of No. 25 Oregon State of the Pac-12. Kupp caught five passes for 119 yards and two touchdowns. He finished th e regular season with 77 catches for 1,378 yards and 18 touchdowns. He caught a TD pass in all 12 regular-season games. Kupp added to those totals in three playoff games. He finished the season with 93 catches for es for 1,691 yards and 21 touchdowns. All three totals were FCS freshman records. His 21 touchdowns were a Big Sky single-season record. Randy Moss held the previous freshman record for TDs in a season by a freshman with 19 at Marshall in 1996. Kupp caught at least one touchdown pass in the first 14 games of the season, an FCS all-time record.

Baldwin Named Coach of the Year

For the second straight season, Eastern Washington's Beau Baldwin was selected by his peers as the Big Sky Conference football Coach of the Year. Baldwin guided Eastern Washington to an 8-0 conference record and a 10-2 regular season. The Eagles won the outright Big Sky Championship, becoming the first team other than Montana to finish perfect in league play since Nevada in 1991. The Eagles beat South Dakota State 41-17 in the second round of the FCS playoffs, and beat Jacksonville State in the quarterfinals. EWU lost 35-31 to Towson in the semifinals. Eastern Washington's Big Sky championship was the third in four seasons under Baldwin. Over that span, EWU has compiled a 27-5 conference record.

The 4-1-1-1: Eastern Washington became the second team in league history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher, and two 1,000-yard receivers. Running back Quincy Forte surpassed 1,000 yards in the quarterfinal win over Jacksonville State, while receiver Ashton Clark surpassed 1,000 receiving yards. QB Vernon Adams finished the season with 4,994 passing yards. Forte had 1,208 rushing yards. Freshman Cooper Kupp had 1,691 receiving yards, and Clark has 1,233. Weber State's 1991 team was the first to accomplish the feat. That year, Jamie Martin threw for 4,125 yards. Geoff Mitchell rushed for 1,170. Alfred Pupunu tallied 1,204 receiving yards, and Dave Hall had 1,043. In 2005, Eastern Washington had a 4,000-yard passer in Erik Meyer and two 1,000-yard receivers in Eric Kimble and Raul Vigil. EWU also had a 4,000-yard passer and two 1,000-yard receivers in 2011 when Bo Levi Mitchell therw for 4,009 yards, and Nicholas Edwards and Greg Herd surpassed 1,000-receiving yards. In 2008, Weber State had a 4,000-yard passer (Cameron Higgins), a 1,000-yard rusher (Trevyn Smith), and a 1,000-yard receiver (Tim Toone). In 1989, Idaho had a 4,000-yard passer (John Friesz) and two 1,000-yard receivers.

FOUR SKY PLAYERS EARN ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA HONORS: Four Big Sky Players were named to the prestigious Capital One Academic All-America Football team. The squad includes players from the FBS and the FBC level. Montana State wide receiver Tanner Bleskin and Northern Arizona linebacker Austin Hasquet earned First Team honors. Southern Utah kicker Colton Cook, and Thunderbird defensive end James Cowser were selected to the second team. Hasquet, a junior from Peoria, Ariz., maintains a 3.95 grade point average in biomedical sciene. Bleskin, a senior from Great Falls, Mont., had a 3.85 GPA in microbiology. Bleskin was named to the team for the second straight season. Cowser, a sophomore from Fruit Heights, Utah, has a 3.99 GPA is psychology. Cook, a graduate student from Centerville, Utah, has a 3.66 GPA in business administration.

MSU'S BLESKIN HEADS FCS ADA ALL-STAR TEAM: Montana State's Tanner Bleskin was one of seven finalists for the 13th Annual FCS ADA's 5,000 Postgraduate Scholarship. Bleksin was one of five Big Sky players named to the 16th annual FCS ADA Academic All-Star Team. Bleskin, a senior wide receiver from Great Falls, Mont., maintains a 3.85 GPA. Two student athletes will receive the postgraduate scholarships. The winners will be announced in June. Eastern Washington's Ronnie Hamlin and Ashton Miller, along with Northern Arizona's Austin Hasquet and Portland State's Mitch Gaulke were also named to the team. Football players from all Football Championship Subdivision institutions are eligible for these prestigious awards. Each of the nominees were required to have a minimum grade point average of 3.20 (on a 4.00 scale) in undergraduate study and have been a starter or key player with legitimate athletics credentials. He must have reached his second year of athletics and academic standing at the nominated institution and have completed a minimum of one full academic year at the nominated institution. He must also have participated in 50 percent of the games played at his designated position.

BAUMAN ENDS CAREER WITH 100-YARD GAME: Northern Arizona's Zach Bauman closed his illustrious career with the 25th 100-yard rushing game of his career, gaining 101 in the playoff loss to South Dakota State. Bauman scored the only touchdown and in the process became the school's all-time leading scorer with 310 points. The three-time First Team All-Big Sky selection finished his career with 5,132 career rushing yards. Only Sacramento State's Charles Roberts (6,553) and Portland State's Charles Dunn (6,007) have more rushing yards in league history. Bauman averaged 114.04 rushing yards per game, which ranks sixth in league history. He rushed for at least 1,059 yards in each of his four years. Bauman finished with a career-high 1,456 yards this season. The Walter Payton Award candidate also amassed 6,316 all-purpose yards in his career, which ranks sixth all-time in conference history. His average of 140.36 all-purpose yards per game ranks 13th in league history.

MCGHEE CAPS CAREER: Montana State four-year starter DeNarius McGhee capped his career in 2013. The two-time Big Sky MVP finished his illustrious career with 11,203 career passing yards, which ranks fifth in Big Sky history. McGhee amassed 12,336 yards of total offense which ranks second in league history. McGhee led Montana State to three Big Sky Championships, and three playoff appearances. He finished his career 36-12 as MSU's starting QB, and was 26-6 in conference games.

ARIAS SETS RECORD FOR ATTEMPTS: Extreme winds kept Idaho State from throwing like it normally does in a 32-7 loss to Weber State to close the 2013 season, but Bengal QB Justin Arias as able to throw enough to break the Big Sky single-season record for pass attempts. Arias attempted 574 passes this season. The previous record was 553 set by Idaho State's Kevin Yost in 2012.

FIRST TO 100: Weber State's Tony Epperson punted eight times in Weber State's 2003 finale against Idaho State. State. Epperson became the first punter in FCS history to punt 100 times in a season. Epperson punted 101 times for a Big Sky record 4,356 yards. The previous FCS record was 98 punts by Louisiana Tech's Barry Hickinbotham in 1987. Epperson tied the Division I record of 101 punts by Jim Bailey of VMI in 1969. The NCAA FCS record book does not list a record for most punting yards in a season. However, the FBS record is 4,138 by Michigan State's Johnny Pringel in 1938.

2013 SEASON REVIEW

Eastern Washington QB Vernon Adams led the nation in pass efficiency. His rating of 183.1 was a single-season Big Sky record.

Portland State's Kyle Loomis led the nation in punting in 2013. The Vikings led the FCS in net punting.

Fatu Moala and the Southern Utah Thunderbirds cracked the top 25 in 2013.

Team Notes

✓ Eastern Washington advanced to the national semifinals for the second consecutive season in 2013. EWU has made the playoffs four of the past five years, winning the national title in 2010.

✓ The Eagles will open the 2014 season with a nationally-televised home game on ESPN. The Eagles will play host to Sam Houston State of the Southland Conference on Aug. 23. The Eagles and Bearkats last squared off in Cheney in a 2012 national semifinal.

✓ Eastern Washington finished fourth in the nation in total offense (533.5 yards per game), fourth in passing offense (349.8 yards per game), and was seventh in scoring offense (39.5 points per game) in 2013.

✓ EWU knocked off No. 25 Oregon State to open the 2013 season. The Eagles will face Washington of the Pac-12 on Sept. 6. The Eagles fell 30-27 to the Huskies in 2011.

Team Notes

✓ The Bengals are under the direction of Mike Kramer for the fourth straight season. Kramer is entering his 17th season as a head coach in the Big Sky Conference.

✓ The Bengals will open the season with back-to-back games against FBS teams in the Beehive State. Idaho State faces Utah of the Pac-12 on Thursday, Aug. 28, and then faces Utah State of the Mountain West on Sept. 6.

✓ Idaho State rushed for 1,130 yards in 2013, the most by a Bengal team since the 2007 season. Xavier Finney's 199 rushing attempts were the fifth-most in single-season school history.

✓ The Bengal defense returns four of the top five leading tacklers from the 2013 season. Mitch Beckstead, who amassed 111 tackles in 2013, leads the returning players.

✓ Idaho State averaged 297 passing yards per game last season.

Team Notes

✓ Montana State looks to return to the playoffs in 2014. The Bobcats advanced to the playoffs each season from 2010-12, winning games in 2011 and 2012.

✓ The Bobcats are 26-6 in Big Sky Conference play the last four seasons with three league titles.

✓ Montana State will play four consecutive home games in September. The Bobcats play host to Black Hills State, Central Arkansas, Eastern Washington and North Dakota in consecutive weeks.

✓ Montana State opens the season at Arkansas State. It will be the first meeting between the programs since the Bobcats beat the Red Wolves in the 1984 FCS playoffs. Arkansas State is now an FBS team that competes in the Sun Belt Conference.

✓ The Bobcats led the Big Sky in kick returns and punt returns in 2013. MSU averaged 25.4 yards per kick return, and 12.8 yards per punt return. Top return man Shawn Johnson is back in 2014.

Team Notes

✓ North Dakota enters its third season as a member of the Big Sky Conference and its first under the direction of head coach Bubba Schweigert. Schweigert, who served as an assistant at UND from 1989-2003, spent the previous six seasons as the defensive coordinator at Southern Illinois.

✓ North Dakota will be playing four of its opponents in 2014 for the first time. UND opens with three straight games against first-time opponents: San Jose State, Robert Morris and Missouri State. On Nov. 8, UND will play conference rival Weber State for the first time in program history.

✓ North Dakota's schedule includes four teams that qualified for the playoffs in 2013: Montana, Southern Utah, Eastern Washington and Northern Arizona. Stony Brook and Montana State made the playoffs in 2012.

✓ UND was third in the Big Sky in passing offense in 2013, averaging 284.1 yards per game.

Team Notes

✓ Northern Arizona finished in second place in the Big Sky in 2013 with a 7-1 record. The Lumberjacks received an at-large bid to the FCS playoffs, the program's first postseason appearance since 2003. Northern Arizona fell in the first round at home to South Dakota State. 26-7.

✓ In the past two years, Northern Arizona has compiled a 13-3 conference record and an overall record of 17-6.

✓ The Lumberjacks will play three non-conference road games, opening the season at San Diego State of the Mountain West. NAU will also travel to Abiline Christian of the Southland Conference, and South Dakota of the Missouri Valley.

✓ For the first time since 2011, Northern Arizona will face Eastern Washington. The teams will square off in Flagstaff on Oct. 25 in a game that will be televised live by ROOT SPORTS.

✓ NAU was tops in the Big Sky in total defense in 2013, allowing just 348.3 yards per game.

Team Notes

✓ Earnest Collins Jr. enters his fourth season as the head coach of his alma mater. The Bears look to rebound from last year's 1-11 season.

✓ Veteran coach Larry Kerr was hired as teh Bears' defensive coordinator during the offseason. Kerr began his coaching career in 1975. He was most recently the defensive coordinator at Colorado State.

✓ Northern Colorado's 11-game schedule includes non-conference FCS games against Northern Iowa of the Missouri Valley and Houston Baptist of the Southland Conference. The Bears open the season at UNLV of the Mountain West Conference.

✓ The Bears finished fourth in the Big Sky in passing offense in 2013, averaging 283 yards per game.

✓ Brock Berglund, a transfer from North Texas, is expected to vie for the starting QB job facated by the graduated Seth Lobato. Berglund signed with Kansas following a stellar prep career in Colorado. He has two seasons of eligibility remaining.

✓ Northern Colorado will welcome defending conference champion lay Eastern Washington to Greeley on Oct. 18. Since the Big Sky expanded 13 teams in 2012, the two teams have not played.

Team Notes

✓ Portland State is coming off a 6-6 campaign, the second-best record in the four-year tenure of coach Nigel Burton.

✓ The Vikings finished third in the nation in total offense and rushing offense in 2013. PSU averaged 277.5 rushing yards and 540.5 yards of offense per game. The 540.4 offensive yards was tops in the Big Sky.

✓ The Vikings will play two Pac-12 teams in 2014. Portland State opens the season on Aug. 30 at Oregon State, and takes on Washington State in Pullman, Wash., on Sept. 13. Both games will be televised on the Pac-12 Network.

✓ Portland State led the nation in net punting in 2013, and returning All-American Kyle Loomis was first in the nation in punting. The Vikings averaged 41.71 yards in net punting. Loomis averaged 46.5 yards per punt.

✓ Three of Portland State's conference games will be televised live by ROOT SPORTS. Portland State will play UC Davis on Oct. 4, Northern Arizona on Oct. 18, and Eastern Washington on Friday, Nov. 21 on ROOT SPORTS.

✓ PSU held six Big Sky opponents under 100 rushing yards, and allowed nine points fewer per game in 2013 than 2012.

Team Notes

✓ The Hornets will be under the direction of interim coach Jody Sears in 2014. Sears, who was the head coach at Weber State in 2012 and 2013, was hired as the Hornets' defensive coordinator. He was elevated to interim head coach after the resignation of Marshall Sperbeck in April.

✓ Sacramento State's schedule features 12 games for the third consecutive season. The first four contests of the year will all be non-league games and will see the Hornets play at Incarnate Word and California before home games against Weber State and Menlo. The game at Incarnate Word will be the first for Sacramento State against an FCS opponent outside of teams that are currently in the Big Sky since facing Saint Mary's in 2003.

✓ All 11 offensive starters are slated to return from the 2013 squad, incluing seior QB Garrett Safron, who threw for 3,289 yards and 27 touchdowns last season.

Team Notes

✓ Southern Utah enters its third year as a member of the Big Sky Conference.

✓ In 2013, the Thunderbirds earned an at-large bid to the FCS Playoffs, the program's first ever NCAA postseason appearance.

✓ The Thunderbirds face one of the most difficult schedules in the FCS. SUU will play FBS teams Nevada and Fresno State, as well as Southeastern Louisiana, South Dakota State, Eastern Washington, Montana and Northern Arizona, which all qualified for the FCS playoffs last season.

✓ Former Brigham Young head coach and Chicago Bears offensive coordinator Gary Crowton has joined the staff as the offensive coordinator.

✓ The Thunderbirds finished second in the Big Sky in total defense in 2013, allowing 349.8 yards per game. In conference-only games, Southern Utah led the league in total defense allowing 325.2 per game.

Team Notes

✓ The Aggies enter their third season as an affiliate football member in the Big Sky Conference, and the second under head coach Ron Gould.

✓ UC Davis closed the 2013 campaign by winning five of its last seven games to finished with a 5-3 conference record, tying for fourth.

✓ The Aggies will open the 2014 season at Stanford, which has played in a BCS Bowl game each of the previous four seasons. The last time the teams met in 2005, the Aggies pulled off a 20-17 upset.

✓ Defending Big Sky champion Eastern Washington is the only Big Sky team on the Aggies' schedule that they did not play in 2012. Last season, UC Davis played eight conference games, and also played Portland State and Northern Arizona in non-conference games.

✓ Running back Gabe Manzanares returns after being selected as the Big Sky's Newcomer of the Year in 2013. Manzanares is the top returning rusher in the league. He gained 1,285 yards and scored 10 touchdowns as a junior.

Team Notes

✓ Weber State is under the direction of first-year coach Jay Hill, who was hired in December. Hill spent the previous 13 seasons on the University of Utah's staff.

✓ Hill is the fourth head coach the Wildcats have had since 2011. Hill replaced Jody Sears, who is now the interim head coach at Sacramento State.

✓ The Wildcats will open its home slate against three-time defending national champion North Dakota State.

✓ Weber State's non-conference schedule also includes road games at Arizona State of the Pac-12, Stephen F. Austin of the Southland Conference, and Sacramento State.

✓ The Wildcats made back-to-back FCS playoff appearances in 2008 and 2009 under Ron McBride, who coached Jay Hill at the University of Utah.

✓ Weber State will play arch-rival Idaho State on Nov. 22 in Pocatello. The Wildcats have beaten the Bengals 11 straight times and 27 of the last 29 meetings.

2014 RULES CHANGES

RULES CHANGES

1. Rules 9-1-3 and 9-1-4, Targeting Fouls (FR-87)
Removal of the yardage penalty upon overturn of the player disqualification. The following is added to the penalty statements of Rules 9-1-3 and 9-1-4 (FR-87): "When the Instant Replay Official reverses the disqualification:
If the targeting foul is not accompanied by another personal foul, the 15-yard penalty for targeting is not enforced. If another personal foul is committed in conjunction with the targeting foul, the 15-yard penalty for that personal foul is enforced according to rule."

2. Rules 9-1-3 and 9-1-4, Targeting Fouls (FR-87)
Games without Instant Replay: halftime video review
Add to the Penalty statement of Rules 9-1-3 and 9-1-4 (FR-87):
"If a player is disqualified in the first half, at the option of the conference or by pre-game mutual agreement of the teams in inter-conference games, during the intermission between halves the referee will be provided a video of the play in question for his review in the officials' private secure location. The referee will review the video to determine whether the disqualification is reversed. The decision of the referee is final.
Note: The video source and the location of the review will be determined prior to the game through mutual agreement of the teams and the referee."

3. Rule 9-1-9, Roughing the Passer (FR-90)
Low hits on passers
Add new paragraph b. (The current article becomes paragraph a.) "When an offensive player is in a passing posture with one or both feet on the ground, no defensive player rushing unabated shall hit him forcibly at the knee area or below. The defensive player also may not initiate a roll or lunge and forcibly hit this opponent in the knee area or below. [Exceptions. (1) It is not a foul if the offensive player is a runner not in a passing posture, either inside or outside the tackle box. (2) It is not a foul if the defender grabs or wraps this opponent in an attempt to make a conventional tackle. (3) It is not a foul if the defender is not rushing unabated or is blocked or fouled into this opponent.]"

Key Editorial Changes

1. Numerals not in contrast with the jersey: Clarification of 2013 Interpretation
Add paragraph d to Rule 1-4-8 (FR-24)
d. Teams wearing jerseys that do not conform to Rules 1-4-4-c and 1-4-5 will be asked to change into legal jerseys before the game and before the start of each quarter until the jerseys are changed. Officials shall charge a team timeout at the start of each quarter the illegal jerseys are worn.

2. Clarification of an airborne player
Amend paragraph b of Rule 2-27-6 (FR-40)
b. An airborne player is a player not in contact with the ground because he leaps, jumps, dives, launches, etc., in other than normal running action.

3. Classify receiver of a backward pass as a Defenseless Player
Amend Rule 2-27-14-b (FR-41) to read:
"b. A receiver attempting to catch a forward pass or in position to receive a backward pass…"
Adjust Note 2 of Rule 9-1-4 (FR-88) accordingly.

4. Clarification of Inbounds and Out-of-Bounds Player
New Article 15 to Rule 2-27 (FR-41)
Player In Bounds and Out Of Bounds
ARTICLE 15. a. Out of Bounds
1. A player is out of bounds when any part of his body touches anything other than another player or a game official on or outside a boundary line.
2. An out-of-bounds player who becomes airborne remains out of bounds until he touches the ground in bounds without simultaneously being out of bounds.
2b. In Bounds
1. An inbounds player is a player who is not out of bounds.
2. An inbounds player who becomes airborne remains in bounds until he is out of bounds.

5. More than eleven players on defense—live-ball foul
Clarification of Rule 3-5-3-c (FR-56):
"If officials do not detect the excessive number of players until during the down or after the ball is dead, or if Team B players have entered the field just before the snap but have not been in the formation, the infraction is treated as a live-ball foul. (A.R. 3-5-3-V)"

6. Targeting Fouls
(a) Amend Rule 9-1-3 (FR-86) to read:
"No player shall target and initiate make forcible contact against an opponent with the crown (top) of his helmet."
(b) Amend Rule 9-1-4 (FR-87) to read:
"No player shall target and initiate make forcible contact to the head or neck area…"

7. Personal Fouls by Team B on Pass Plays--Clarification of Enforcement
Addition to 9-1 Penalty statement (FR-86)
For Team B personal fouls during a legal forward pass play (Rule 7-3-12):
Enforcement is at the end of the last run when it ends beyond the neutral zone and there is no change of possession during the down.
Enforcement is at the previous spot for personal fouls during all other pass plays.
New Article 12 to Rule 7-3 (FR-79)
Team B Personal Fouls During Legal Forward Pass Play
Penalties for personal fouls by Team B during a completed legal forward pass play are enforced at the end of the last run when it ends beyond the neutral zone. If the pass is incomplete or intercepted, or if there is a change of possession during the down, the penalty is enforced at the previous spot. (Rule 9-1 Penalty)

8. Include Backward Pass Out of Bounds as a Reviewable Play
Amend Rule 12-3-2-e-2
e. Pass ruled forward or backward.
1. If the pass is ruled forward and is incomplete, the play is reviewable only if the ball goes out of bounds or if there is clear recovery of a loose ball in the immediate continuing action after the loose ball. If the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the ruling of incomplete pass stands.

9. Allow Intentional Grounding to be reviewable in clearly obvious situations when the penalty results in a safety.
Amend Rule 12-3-2 (FR-107) by adding a new paragraph f:
"f. Location of the passer when he is obviously in the field of play and a ruling of intentional grounding would result in a safety by penalty."

10. Include recovery of a loose ball as a reviewable play
Amend Rule 12-3-3 (FR-107) by adding a new paragraph j:
"j. Catch or recovery of a loose ball in the field of play or an end zone."
